All securing of loads to collection vehicles is the responsibility of the Customer. Customers must abide by any instructions given by our staff at the time of collection.

If the Goods are required by the Customer to be delivered by us:

6.2 Any dates quoted for delivery of the Goods are approximate only and we shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods howsoever caused. Time for delivery shall not be of the

- essence unless previously agreed as such by us in writing. We may deliver the Goods in advance of the quoted delivery date upon giving you reasonable notice.
- 6.3 Where the Goods are to be delivered in instalments, each delivery shall constitute a separate contract and our failure to deliver any one or more of the instalments in accordance with these Conditions or any claim by you in respect of any one or more shall not entitle you to treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated.
- 6.4 If we fail to deliver the Goods for any reason other than any cause beyond our reasonable control or your fault, and we are accordingly liable to you, our liability shall be limited to our delivery charge.
- 6.5 Where we are to deliver goods:
- 6.5.1. risk of damage to or risk of loss of the Goods to be delivered shall pass to the Customer at the time of the delivery;

- 6.5.3. delivery will be as near to the place where you require delivery to be made as in our discretion a safe hard road permits, this will be at our driver's discretion. In all other circumstances we will not accept any liability for any damage caused by the vehicle or driver.

A maximum period of one hour is allowed for the purpose of unloading each vehicle (unless we otherwise agree in writing) and if the unloading period for any reason extends beyond one hour you will be charged on a time and cost basis at our current rates; and
- 6.5.5. it is the Customers responsibility to arrange safe offloading of the goods. Where mechanical offload is unavailable or unsuitable, appropriate assistance must be provided by the Buyer to assist with manual offload. All operatives must be equipped with suitable protective clothing, gloves, boots etc. Flashings can be both sharp and heavy. Weather conditions should also be taken into account by the Customer when unloading.
- 6.6 If you fail to take delivery of the Goods or fail to give us adequate delivery instructions at the time stated for delivery (otherwise than by reason of any cause beyond your reasonable control or by reason of our fault) then, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to us, we may:

- 6.6.2 sell the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all reasonable delivery, storage, selling and administrative expenses) account to you for the excess over the price under the Contract or charge you for any shortfall below the price under the Contract.

- 6.6.3 When your goods are delivered these are sometimes delivered on a pallet with the necessary associated packaging to ensure they arrive with you in the best possible condition. We view the pallet and packaging as necessary for the protection of the goods and therefore will be a part of what is delivered to you. It is your responsibility to dispose of these items in a responsible manner when appropriate.
- 6.7 When taking possession of any goods you should ensure that they are stored indoors where possible; at the very least the goods should remain protected from all weather conditions whilst stored until such time as you are ready to install them.
